Explore these megalithic marvels, as well as the beautifully restored Ta' Kola Windmill, a relic of the Knights of Malta's enduring legacy. Back aboard the ship en route to Sicily, watch the crew climb high into the rigging to unfurl the sails by hand—a breathtaking display of traditional seamanship that brings the grandeur of square-rig sailing to life.

Awaken this morning to the storied shores of Siracusa, a UNESCO site that was once a powerful rival to Athens and a beacon of ancient culture and commerce. Wander through the atmospheric limestone quarries, including the legendary "Ear of Dionysius," and visit the impressive Roman amphitheater, a testament to the city's layered history. In the afternoon, enjoy the serenity of the open sea. Reflect on the morning's discoveries, attend engaging talks with your expedition staff and sample a curated selection of Sicilian wines. Or simply relax on deck and revel in the thrill of sailing.

Stroll along the elegant Corso Umberto, a pedestrian promenade lined with historic architecture, boutique shops, and charming cafés. Visit the town's crown jewel—the Greco-Roman Theater—an ancient amphitheater carved into the cliffside in the 3rd century B.C., offering breathtaking views of the sea and Mount Etna beyond. From Taormina, continue to the Castello degli Schiavi, an 18th-century private villa steeped in history and cinematic lore. Enjoy an exclusive lunch hosted by members of the family who still reside there and explore the villa's atmospheric grounds, famously featured in several iconic scenes from The Godfather films. ◇ DAY 9

Pylos / At Sea

Nestled on the southwestern coast of the Peloponnese—named for the mythical King Pelops, founder of the Olympic Games—Pylos is a town steeped in history and myth. Once a vital center of Mycenaean civilization, it was home to King Nestor, the wise elder statesman of Homer's Iliad. Today, explore the dramatic Methoni Castle, perched on a rocky cape jutting into the Ionian Sea. Built by the Venetians in the 12th century and expanded in the 17th, this fortress boasts a stone bridge, a deep moat, and towering walls that lead to a picturesque octagonal watchtower—perfect for photos and panoramic views.

This dramatic fortress town clings to the side of a towering 1,000-foot rock that rises from the sea like a stone ship, hidden from view until you're nearly upon it. Step ashore to explore the enchanting lower town, or kastro, a labyrinth of narrow cobbled lanes, Byzantine churches, and centuries-old stone houses. For those who opt to venture upward, a steep path leads to the upper town and the Church of Agia Sofia, perched high above the sea with sweeping views. With its timeless architecture and serene pace of life, Monemvasia feels like a living museum—where even the "newest" buildings are hundreds of years old. Spend your final afternoon at sea in quiet reflection, capture the ship's graceful details through your lens, or simply savor the sea breeze as you recall the wonders of your journey. A romantic tall ship with every modern comfort, Sea Cloud II combines the spaciousness and welcome amenities of a contemporary vessel with the grace and elegance of a square rigger.
